

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: T. Isler
Director of Marketing
(O) (202) 478-4150
gwwenet@gwwn.org

May 1, 2008

A TIME TO APPRECIATE WITH THE HONORABLE SONYA E. MEDINA AND THE GREATER WASHINGTON WOMEN'S NETWORK

Washington DC — The Greater Washington Women's Network (GWWN), an affiliate of the National Association for Female Executives (NAFE) will host their monthly "share, learn and network" meeting on Thursday, May 8, 2008 from 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM at Robert Half International Office Team, 1201 F Street NW, Suite 900, Washington DC 20004 within walking distance from Metro Center.

Join the Deputy Assistant to the President for Domestic Policy and Director of Projects for the First Lady, The Honorable Sonya E. Medina and GWWN for a day of admiration and appreciation. As we approach Mother's Day, Ms. Medina will discuss the importance of affirming and celebrating individuals who make a significant contribution in your every day life.

Ms. Medina is a key advisor to the president in all areas of education policy, from early childhood through higher education. She also oversees Laura Bush's projects and policy office, focusing on issues regarding areas such as education, women's health, and global democracy. She was featured in Hispanic Magazine and Latino Style Magazine.

For more information and to register go to: gwwn.org.

About the Greater Washington Women's Network:

The Greater Washington Women's Network (GWWN) is a nonprofit organization of diverse women working toward the advancement and promotion of our members through networking, education, and community service. GWWN is an affiliate of the National Female Executives (NAFE), the largest women's professional association and the largest business owner's organization in the country. It holds monthly networking meeting every second Thursday of the month to encourage women throughout Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia to meet, exchange ideas, and establish relationships. For additional information go to gwwn.org